

Important Things to Know

Before Using Drones

What Types of Drones Require Registration

Drones equipped with cameras

Drones without cameras but weighing more than 2 kilograms

Drones weighing more than 25 kilograms

How to Register a Drone

1. Register with two authorities CAAT and NBTC
2. CAAT Register for a drone pilot certificate and register your drone.
3. Registration for a drone pilot certificate and drone registration can be completed via the UAS Portal at uasportal.caat.or.th

NBTC
 Obtain permission to use radio frequency.

uasportal.caat.or.th

Drone Registration

Registration must be completed through the UAS Portal (uasportal.caat.or.th)

Drones weighing less than 25 kg. and more than 25 kg.

1. Register through the UAS Portal
2. Receive the drone registration number upon approval
3. Display the drone registration number clearly on the drone

- ✓ Receive the drone registration number upon approval
- ✓ The registration number does not expire unless it is cancelled
- ✓ Drones cannot be registered multiple times

How to display the drone registration number

For Drones Weighing Less than 25 kg.
 The registration number must be attached on a visible, durable label or sticker with a font size of at least 3 mm.

For Drones Weighing More than 25 kg.
 The registration number must be attached on a visible, durable label or sticker with a font size of at least 25 mm.

Drone Pilot Registration

Registration must be completed through the UAS Portal (uasportal.caat.or.th)

Drone pilot certificate for drones that weighing less than 25 kg.

1. Register for a basic drone pilot certificate
  2. Pass an online knowledge test (E-Exam)
  3. Obtain the basic drone pilot certificate
- ✓ The drone pilot certificate is valid for 2 years

Drone pilot certificate for drones that weighing more than 25 kg.

1. Register for a basic drone pilot certificate
2. Pass an online knowledge test (E-Exam)
3. Obtain the basic drone pilot certificate
4. Register for an advanced drone pilot certificate for your specific type of drone through your training program
5. Obtain the advanced drone pilot certificate for your specific type of drone

- ✓ Must obtain the basic drone pilot certificate first
- ✓ The advanced pilot certificate is valid for 2 years

